

MR. PLATT CONFIDENT.

Says He Is Sure He Can Bring About Reorganization.

Senator Thomas C. Platt spent the day at the Hotel Gotham yesterday. The Senator was in excellent spirits. When asked how his conference relative to a change in the management of the County Committee were progressing he said: "I have a unanimous opinion that something should be done. The party needs reorganization, and I believe that it will be effected. I am in favor of the election of J. Van Vechten Olcott as chairman. He is a clean, honest and able man. I have talked with many of the local leaders, and I will talk with many more. The sentiment, so far as I have talked with, is in favor of Mr. Olcott."

MR. ODELL MAY RETURN.

His Cross-Examination Probably Gulliver to Follow Colby.

William C. Gulliver, of counsel for James Hazen Hyde, may follow Bainbridge Colby on the witness stand before the legislative life insurance committee this week. The committee has made no definite announcement that Mr. Colby will be asked to testify. Mr. Colby in the Hyde-Harriman-Odell phase of the investigation seems to be generally agreed on. It will be recalled that James Hazen Hyde, in his testimony on Tuesday, declared that E. H. Harriman had made certain interesting statements to Mr. Gulliver regarding the nature of the Frick report, and that several members of the Frick committee had talked with Mr. Gulliver regarding proposals to buy Mr. Hyde's Equitable stock.

QUESTION CITIZ' VITALITY.

Federated Union Does Not Know if Citizens Union Still Exists.

The Citizens Union was attacked at the meeting of the Central Federated Union yesterday, and the question whether it was still alive was discussed for some time. The discussion came up on the reading of a letter from John J. Murphy, secretary of the Citizens Union, to the secretary of the central body, asking support in its ballot reform movement.

PAY ON TEACHERS' SUITS.

Explanation of Distribution of $291,430.60 Award Given Out.

The Brooklyn Teachers' Association has issued a statement to its members describing how the $291,430.60 was won from the Board of Education through the suit on the Pettengill schedule which first passed on the letter, recommended that the communication should not be endorsed. A. H. Hildbrand, a member of the Citizens Union, said that the communication should not be endorsed. "If we adopted the ballot as it is, it would be worse than the present one. Many of the citizens would not vote. It is a body of citizens, and I am a Citizens Union man myself."

DISCUSS FREE BALLOT.

Churchmen Say Foreigners Do Not Appreciate Suffrage.

The subject of discussion at the People's Meeting at the Baptist Church of the Epiphany, Madison Ave. and 4th-st., yesterday afternoon, where the Rev. Dr. Madison C. Peters and the Rev. Dr. Robert S. MacArthur led in the discussion, was "A Free Ballot and a Fair Count: The Hope of the Republic." There was a fair attendance, and a number of the speakers expressed views on ways and means of purifying the ballot after the formal discussion of the subject by the ministers.

"JIM CROW" THEATRE ESTABLISHED.

Pennsylvania Negroes Are Indignant at Discrimination Against Them.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.] Monaca, Pa., Nov. 18.—A "Jim Crow" edict has been established by the manager of the Opera House here. Many negroes live hereabouts. The manager, M. B. Willoughby, said he has always endeavored to seat negroes together, because of frequent complaints from white patrons, who object to sitting near them. The negroes declare that the situation is the same as where the "Jim Crow" cars are in vogue.

TO PUSH FRAUD CASES.

Hearst Counsel to Devote Attention to Criminal Prosecutions.

There was a consultation of the Hearst lawyers in the Hoffman House yesterday, and at its end a statement was given out. It is planned to give more attention this week to the criminal phase of the situation, although the work of the account half devoting its attention to the collection and arrangement of evidence, while the other will push the other matters as rapidly as possible.

NOTES OF THE STAGE.

Old Home Week Dramatized for Mr. Barnabee.

That recent New-England institution, "Old Home Week," which is so sentimentally popular, has been dramatized, if the process of making a musical comedy can be dignified by the verb, to dramatize. The result, which is called "Cloverleaf," and in which Henry Clay Barnabee, of blessed memory, having now recovered his health, is going to star again, will be shown on next Wednesday at Worcester, Mass., a town that lies on the edge of the Old Home belt. Tilton Richardson has written the book, D. K. Stevens the lyrics and George Lowell Tracy the music. Mr. Barnabee's plot is that of the Hon. Jefferson Jackson Clark, Secretary of Agriculture, who visits his birthplace during Old Home Week. Others come with him. They sing as the curtain rises:

From the classic halls of learning
We have turned our steps
To the dreary old home
That we feel making here.

A prospect of the play speaks as follows: "Cloverleaf" gives to American political and social conditions satirical treatment that places it on a par with the most famous and famous musical comedies of the Gilbert and Sullivan musical comedies.

DIRECT NOMINATIONS ADVOCATED.

Described as Blow to Boss Rule Before People's Forum.

William Grant Brown, president of the Direct Nomination League of Manhattan, was the principal speaker before the People's Forum of Mount Vernon, in Turnverein Hall, yesterday afternoon. He spoke on the objects of the league, which are to enable the people as a whole to select candidates for different county and State offices, instead of by political bosses.

DANGER OF CLASH PAST.

Peaceful Season for Fishermen Believed To Be Assured.

Washington, Nov. 19.—All danger of a clash between the Gloucester and Newfoundland fishermen has been averted, it is believed, for this season by the exchanges between Secretary Root and Sir Mortimer Durand, the British Ambassador. The Secretary is now awaiting the reply of the London government to his memorandum, in which he called attention to the three main points of difference. This is expected some time within the week, and its receipt, it is believed, will clear up practically the entire situation.

The first of the three points over which trouble has arisen is the reported attempt of the Newfoundland government to draw a distinction between vessels of American license and those of American register, claiming that the latter did not carry with it the right to fish. This, in the opinion of the Washington government, was a matter concerning only the United States, but it was pointed out that an American register was a vessel's highest evidence of nationality and carried with it alike the right to fish and to trade.

The second point involved a recent law of Newfoundland which provides that if any vessel is caught within the three-mile limit with fishing gear on board the fishing gear shall be regarded as evidence of nationality, and the vessel shall be seized. To this the Secretary answered that the law was exceedingly groundless and that it was a violation of treaty rights.

In the third place, attention was called to the refusal of the Newfoundland government to clear the fishing grounds at the recent legislation forbidding them to sell bait to American fishermen, had determined, in the opinion of the Washington government, to prevent American fishermen from fishing for bait. This determination, if carried out, it is believed, would have precipitated an exceedingly serious situation.

The American case received very careful attention from the Newfoundland government, and it has taken a firm stand on these three points.
